HAND * BOOK

TENNESSEE WESLEYAN COLLEGE

1941

1942

FOREWORD

This hand-book has been prepared especially to assist you during the Orientation period. It contains the program for the first week, instructions for registration, the class schedule, and a brief statement concerning scholarship, standards of attendance and conduct. You will find the hand-book of great value to you in adjusting yourself to college life. Each student should become thoroughly acquainted with its contents and should keep it for reference.

G R E E T I N G S

Fellow Students:

As president of the student body of Tennessee Wesleyan College, I wish to extend to you a hearty welcome on behalf of the faculty and student body for whom I speak. With your cooperation I'm sure the coming school year will be a great one for Tennessee Wesleyan College.

One of the most outstanding features of the Campus is the new Library, which is to be open for the first time during the coming school year. It is one of the finest in the South and I'm sure you realize what a wonderful opportunity it affords.

Social activities and athletics play a big part in school life at Tennessee Wesleyan College to make it interesting, educational and entertaining. We'll be seeing you in September.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Shoemaker
Kenneth Shoemaker
Student President

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REGISTRATION

The chief problem that confronts you during registration is the planning of your course of study. Before you meet the faculty advisor and administrative officers who will assist you, study the requirements in the various curricula offered (an outline of these will be given you) and decide upon a tentative combination of courses you would like to take. Appraise yourself, your motives in coming to college, your needs and desires. This preliminary self-examination will give you something definite for your conference with the advisor. Avoid making your course too narrow. The aim of the first year is to give each individual a balanced distribution among the various fields of thought. Such a course will contribute most to your future appreciation and happiness.

Registration will be held in the Merner-Pfeiffer Library on Tuesday morning, September 9.

The following procedure should be followed:

- (a) Obtain registration cards and with the help of a faculty advisor assigned by the Dean, make out schedule of courses.
- (b) Present card to Registrar and Dean for approval.
- (c) Present card to Dean's Secretary for Chapel seat.
- (d) Present card to Business Manager for Statement, settlement of account and signature.

NO STUDENT WILL BE PERMITTED TO REGISTER WHO DOES NOT PAY
MATRICULATION FEE.

ATTENDANCE

It is very important that students enter classes at the very beginning of the quarter and keep in mind that constant, prompt attendance is necessary for the attainment of satisfactory work. STUDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO DROP CLASSES OR TAKE UP NEW STUDIES WITHOUT THE WRITTEN APPROVAL OF THE DEAN.

Absences due to illness or authorized absence due to athletics, debate, and other interscholastic activities away from the campus shall not count in the total absences, provided the work is made up in a manner satisfactory to the instructor.

Unexcused absences from class and excused absences not made up shall automatically reduce the student's grade. WHEN THE NUMBER OF SUCH ABSENCES SHALL EXCEED TWICE THE NUMBER OF RECITATIONS PER WEEK IN ANY COURSE THE STUDENT SHALL AUTOMATICALLY BE DROPPED FROM THE COURSE WITH A GRADE OF F. Absences before and after a holiday will count double.

Excuse for absences shall be submitted to the Dean within five school days after the absence has occurred. All excuses for absences will be issued by the Dean.

Attendance at Chapel exercises is required of all students. A student who has three unexcused absences charged to him will receive warning from the Dean. If he accumulates six unexcused absences during the quarter he will be subject to discipline. Three tardy marks will count as one absence.

SCHOLARSHIP

In college you will be more or less on your own responsibility as far as class work is concerned. Remember that your chief reason for being here is to work to educate yourself. In this matter you control your own academic fate. Form the habit of daily established routine with your work.

The presumption is that every student who enrolls expects to exert his best efforts to carry the courses for which he matriculates. No one will be permitted to continue in school who does not exert himself to meet the requirements of his classes. Failure to make a passing grade in as many as ten hours of work in a quarter is sufficient cause for dropping any student.

In recording grades, letters are used with the following significances:

A-Excellent	D-Passing	I-Incomplete
B-Good	E-Condition, No Credit

C-Fair F-Failure Grades I and E must be removed before the close of the following quarter or they become F and the course must be repeated.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Student life at Tennessee Wesleyan includes many activities outside the classroom. These are open to all and participation in a reasonable number will make college life richer and more meaningful. These activities include literary, social, musical, religious, dramatic, forensic and athletic. Each student should strive to work out for himself a proper balance between studies and participation in extra-curricular affairs.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

The policy of the College is to have the fewest rules and regulations consistent with good order and wholesome conditions. Naturally, where a large number of young people are associated together, certain regulations must be in force which would not be necessary if one individual only were concerned; but to a right minded youth, none of the restrictions or requirements will prove burdensome. The act of registration is a voluntary agreement on the part of the student to abide by the rules and regulations of the College.

All students are expected to conform to those social and ethical standards which govern the best men and women everywhere. The rights of others are to be respected at all times.

All duly announced regulations, wherever made, are as binding as if printed in the hand-book.

Students are expected to register and make settlement of their bills immediately upon arrival.

Outside students not living with their parents are subject to the same general regulations as those who board in the dormitories.

No student may withdraw, except at the close of the quarter, unless excused by the Dean.

Instruction from teachers outside of the College will not be allowed except by permission; nor shall any person not regularly enrolled as a student of the College receive instruction from any teacher of the College, except by permission.

Card playing and dancing are prohibited.

Smoking is prohibited on the campus, except in ~~Petty-Manker Hall~~. designated places.

~~Visiting pool rooms will not be tolerated.~~

The use of intoxicants is absolutely forbidden.

All students appearing on the athletic fields, tennis courts or gymnasium floor must wear regulation uniforms.

Mixed parties of students are not allowed to go on picnics or excursions except by permission from the Dean, and then only when chaperoned by a member of the faculty.

Nothing shall be presented at any public exercise of the College which has not been passed upon by the Dean or a designated member of the faculty.

Student organizations must not contract debts of any kind without the consent of the Business Manager, and in all matters are under the control of the faculty.

Not student will be graduated whose indebtedness to the College is not paid or provided for.

All students are ~~required~~ expected to attend church services on Sunday morning.

Homes offering lodgings to students are subject to inspection. Men and women students may not room in the same house.

No student is permitted to become a member of any club, fraternity, or other organization off the campus without the permission of the faculty. Nor shall any student participate in a program with an organization off the campus without the consent of the faculty. Dean of the College approval

DORMITORY RULES AND REGULATIONS

All students rooming in the dormitories are responsible for observing the rules and regulations governing conduct in the dormitories. A copy of these rules and regulations will be given each student.

Each student is expected to cooperate in every way in making dormitory life helpful and beneficial to all.

The administration of dormitory regulations is delegated to the superintendents of the halls.

Any student who is not in accord with the ideas and efforts of the College should sever his relations with the Institution. The College reserves the right to dismiss any student whenever the welfare of the student body seems to require it.

PRIZES

Each year the College offers a number of prizes for excellence in various fields of endeavor. A detailed list of these prizes is given on page 24 of the College Catalog.

THE LEGEND OF THE TWO TREES

Tennessee Wesleyan College is rich in traditions and nothing illustrates better the heritage that is hers than the legend of the two trees pictured on the cover of this hand-book. These two, a hackberry and an oak, now approximately 170 years old, stand near the sidewalk just north of Ritter Hall. Here in brief is the story as it was handed down by the Indians.

Soon after the battle of King's Mountain, about 1780, a hunting party of Cherokees found a young English officer wounded and almost dead not far from their village near the present site of Loudon. The Indians being friendly to the British brought the soldier to their chief Atta-Kulla-Kulla, who had him carried to his own wigwan. Here he was nursed back to health by the tender care of No-ca-too-la Coo-we-na, which means "Sun shining on dew drops", the beautiful daughter of the chief. After his recovery the young soldier's chief delight was in his daily association with the Indian maiden and soon their friendship developed naturally into mutual love.

After many moons the old chief, moved by the young Soldier's sincerity and devotion, consented to his adoption into the tribe and gave the couple his blessing. The soldier was given the name Con-ne-sto-ga, "The Oak", and was received in the council circle. A new wigwan was built and the two were happily married according to the Indian custom.

Late in the following autumn the tribe moved westward in a leisurely hunt finally camping at the big springs on the west of the Eastanalle, from which the city of Athens now obtains its water.

Then, one never to be forgotten morning, Connestoga, with several hunting companions left the camp to make a deer drive a little further down the valley. Here while creeping toward the game Connestoga was attacked from behind by a young warrior, an unsuccessful rival for the hand of Nocatoola, who sprang upon him and plunged a knife into his neck. Turning, Connestoga raised his rifle and fired at the fleeing brave whose death shriek rang out with the report of the gun.

In a very short time Nocatoola was at her lover's side and as the life breath ebbed from her loved one and with the words "I cannot, I will not live without him" she plunged the knife into her own bosom.

According to Indian custom the bodies were not disturbed and before the earth covering was applied, the grief stricken old chief placed in the right hand of each a seed--in Connestoga's an acorn, in Nocatoola's a hackberry. From these grew the two trees, symbolizing undying love and devotion, truly among the richest of Wesleyan's many heritages from the past.

THE GOLD AND BLUE
College Song

Wesleyan dear, our voices now we raise,
With grateful hearts we shout aloud thy praise
While float on high thy colors Gold and Blue
We bring our love, to thee we'll e'er be true.

Chorus:

Gold and Blue, we'll ever love thee
Thy glories now we sing,
Joyfully we come to hail thee,
Loud thy praises ring.
Shout aloud the name of Wesleyan
Over land and sea,
True and loyal dear old Wesleyan
We'll ever be to thee.

Thy campus old, thy walks and whispering trees,
In memory oft our thoughts will turn to these.
College dear, we'll ever guard thy name.
Thru all the years true will our hearts remain.
Eda Selby Mclear.

ALMA MATER

Our strong band can ne'er be broken
Formed at T. W. C.
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Sealed by loyalty.

Chorus:

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Loud her praises be;
Hail to thee our Alma Mater!
Hail to T. W. C.!

School life here at best is passing
Fast the moments flee;
Let us pledge in word and deed
Our love for T. W. C.
